How To Be Useless and Miserable

Be Self-Centered -- Bestow all your affection and care upon yourself, seek your own happiness and well-being to the point of unconcern for the needs of others.

Be Demanding Of Others -- Tell yourself that others are obligated to you, that it is their duty to be concerned about you and look after your best interest, and make no allowance for the least failure on their part to discharge this duty.

Feel Neglected And Become Absorbed In Self-Sympathy -- Convince yourself completely that others do not fulfill their obligations to you, and never allow the least doubt that you are a subject of misfortune and pity.

See Only Good In Yourself And Faults In Others -- For every attitude and act of unrighteousness on your part, find an excuse to salve your conscience while demanding absolute perfection of others.

Observe these rules and you will attain complete uselessness and perfect misery, especially if you make sure others see just how pathetic you are.

If, however, your aim is usefulness and happiness, then you must do the exact opposite: "It is more blessed to give than to receive," and remember that selfishness is among man's most soul-condemning blunders.

"Each of you should look not only to your own interests, but also to the interests of others. Your attitude should be the same as that of Christ Jesus." Phil. 2:5-5

"Fearless"

\ This is the title for a very special class Jerry Hiatt will be teaching on Sunday mornings (10 AM) starting January 31st.*

"They're talking layoffs at work, slowdown in the economy, downturns in the value of your home, upswings in global warming, swine flu, and the word "terrorism" begins with the word "terror." Fear it seems has taken a 100 year lease and set up shop. Oversized and rude fear herds us into a prison and slams the door.

Wouldn't it be great to escape it? What if faith not fear was your reaction to threats? The one statement made by Jesus more than any other was "Fear not." Fear will always knock on your door. But the promise of Christ is simple: we can fear less tomorrow than we do today."

\ Make plans to be part of this very special class and let me also encourage you to invite your friends and neighbors to join us.
